Subject: Re: Kiyah's FTM

Who are the newest people added to this email. Suzanne and the lfs email addresses? And why couldnt you have emailed me about this months meeting? And no i wont meet you. You have NO real interest in my daughters mental or physical well being. Im sick and tired of your lies and keeping me from important meetings and reviews. Now i AM ANGRY. You have completely ignored my requests for my copies of all documents. My case plan is a violation of your own rules. You claim in person that bradell and i being together was not an issue but then reported me as a safety issue. Claiming he doesnt realize safety risk in letting me be part of his and kiyahs life, yet i still have yet to hear a good reason or any reason for that matter for that claim. I have come and tried addressing my concerns to you and others to no avail including Judge Daniels. My next email will contain all your procedure violations as well as the blatant disregard for mine and kiyahs constitutional rights. All of you will be held accountable for what you have and continue to do. You do not have immunity to these Jill. Think about that before you make your next move or tell me some more lies or "forget" to tell me something i should know. I may not have had a lawyer at court I may have screwed up but i promise it wont happen again. I have caught you in your lies and you expect me to trust you but that would make me just as stupid as your agency and others are for thinking this mom would EVER allow anyone to do this to my daughter without consequence. You have won some battles but i will WIN this war. Its what a GOOD mom does and i will never EVER stop until your crimes against us are stopped and everyone involved in the crimes punished.

The people who actually spend time with us on our visits don't believe that I'm neglecting her or if you say see that I'm very good mother love my daughter and she loves me if there was a problem to begin with it wouldnt be that way but my supervision ladies have also seen and heard the things that I have been saying were happening from the start but you have seen no proof that theyre allegations toward me were true at all. If I file the motion to have this case dismissed with a lawyer on my side not a public pretender I will win. It
